

Our suite of products

Aviate was founded in 2009 with the purpose of offering the best flight content and fares to tour operators through a single source.

Since then, we have grown and now encompass multiple brands with a broad offering – each designed with the idea of simplifying travel.

Who are Aviate?

Aviate Flights

The best offering of flight content via a single source.

Book fares in a way that works for you - Intuitive booking system, a direct link through our API or Cache products, or through your own GDS.

Unrivalled fare content - Inclusive Tour fares for over 75 international airlines, published fares for 150 airlines.

Out of Date Range flights to the Caribbean and North America.

Aviate Groups

Simplifying travel for 10 passengers or more.

Groups Market Place – our online quoting tool to keep track of all of your groups business

Out of Date Range requests – Register your interest in advance and we will notify you when the flights become available

Lengthy non-commitment – hold group fares for longer whilst you coordinate your group

Aviate Tech

Our fares, your systems, endless possibilities.

InfiniteCache – a store of our airfares fed directly to your website. The quickest way to receive our fare content.

InfiniteAPI – a direct connection between our GDS and your website to deliver real-time airfare content directly to you.
