

FLY FROM LONDON GATWICK TO PARIS AND BEYOND IN SUMMER 2026

From 29 March 2026, Air France will expand its UK network by launching a new service between London Gatwick North Terminal (LGW) and Paris Charles de Gaulle (CDG). The airline will operate two flights per day with the Airbus A220 offering both Economy and Business class.

This service provides travellers from the South-East access to the French capital, as well as an extensive global network via the Paris hub.

The new flights will complement Air France's existing services between London Heathrow and Paris. Flights are now available for booking. Please refer to the Air France website for the latest schedules.

WHY CHOOSE AIR FRANCE

- Connect to over 160 destinations worldwide via Paris and many more with our SkyTeam partners
- Choose between Business Class and Economy to Paris or Europe, along with La Première and Premium on long haul flights*
- Award-winning service:
Skytrax Best Airline in Western Europe

*La Première (First Class) is only available on selected long haul flights.

Long haul products are shown in the cabin images.

All information is correct on 2 December 2025 and subject to change without prior notice.